MEET THE PRESENTERS -

Kim Dingler

Senior Marketing Director, World Financial Group; Co-chair, Foundation Board, Chrysalis

Kim Dingler has been educating families about how money works for over 15 years. She is passionate about the campaign for financial literacy, and believes that every single person deserves a fundamental education about how money works. Kim is one of only a few hundred certified workshop presenters across North America and loves presenting the knowledge in her community.

Greg Laskey

Greg has been an active member of Toastmasters for over a quarter of a century. He has benefited from the communication and leadership skills offered as well as sharing those skills with people of all ages. He has taught and shared the values of skilled communication to first year pharmacy students at the University of Alberta, cadet organizations and many others.

More recently Greg joined the Campaign for Financial Literacy and passionately believes that we should all be knowledgeable masters of our finances - be us Millennials or Baby Boomers. He also believes, the more we learn the more we control our financial destinies.
