This will confirm the results of the case management video conference held on February 12, 2021. The following summarizes the case management outcome:

- Board provided direction to the parties concerning the factual basis for the summary dismissal argument – counsel to discuss potential agreement on evidence for summary dismissal hearing. Vice-Chair available for further case management if necessary.
- Board Officer to contact counsel to schedule future case management conference dealing with issues of timing of production / further particulars / employer's replies on the main files.

With respect to further case management on the main files, please provide your availability for case management sometime during the period March 22, 2021 to April 30, 2021. Please provide your available dates by close of business on February 26, 2021.

If you have any questions regarding the above, please contact Labour Relations Officer Kent Nelson at (780) 427-0709 or kent.nelson@gov.ab.ca.
